

RAINY DAY ACTIVITIES

MUSEUMS

Maine State Museum

230 State St

Augusta, ME 04333

207-287-2301

$2 Adult Admission, Children (6-18) $1

Here you will find exhibits highlighting the history and culture of Maine. You will be able to learn about Maine's archaeological, geological and natural histories by viewing the museum's extensive collections and archival compilation of diaries, accounts, newspapers and books pertaining to the state's history.

Maine Maritime Museum

243 Washington St

Bath, ME 04530

207-443-1316

Admission - ask us at the front desk about tickets, we have some available.

Learn about Maine's rich maritime history. The museum houses fascinating artifacts, photographs, paintings and ship models. There are over 10 acres of galleries and exhibits, five 19th century shipyard buildings, a life size model of the Wyoming (largest wooden sailing vessel ever built), and seasonal hands on activities and river cruises.

Pemaquid Lighthouse

Route 130

New Harbor, ME 04539

207-677-2492

$3 Admission per car

The Pemaquid Lighthouse is one of Maine's most treasured landmarks. The Lighthouse was built in 1826 and holds a traditional Fresnel lens. During the summer months the Lighthouse & adjacent buildings are open to tourists. Be sure to bring a camera - the view from the Point is stunning!

Maine Lighthouse Museum

1 Park Drive

Rockland, ME 04841

207-594-3301

$5 Adult Admission, Children under 12 are free

Located on Rockland's picturesque waterfront, the Maine Lighthouse Museum highlights American maritime & lighthouse history. The museum has a collection of lighthouse artifacts, lenses, light keeper uniforms and mementoes.

Farnsworth Art Museum

16 Museum St
Rockland, ME 04841
207-596-6457

$12 Adult Admission, Children under 16 are free

The Farnsworth holds a nationally recognized collection of historic American art as well as famed works by the Wyeths. The museum campus also has an extensive library and two historic buildings that are furnished as they were when they were lived in during the Victorian Era.

Owl's Head Transportation Museum

Rte 73
Owl's Head, ME 04854
207-594-4418

Admission - Ask us at the front desk about tickets; we have some available.

Owl's Head houses more than 100 historic aircraft, automobiles, bicycles/motorcycles and engines dating as far back as 1803.

Bowdoin College Art Museum

9400 College Station
Brunswick, ME 04011
207-725-3275

Free Admission, Donations Welcome

Bowdoin College presents one of the country's most extensive art collections reflecting many cultures and time periods. The Museum holds a variety of works in sculpture, paintings, African-American works, decorative ceramics, and much more.

Peary-MacMillan Arctic Museum @ Bowdoin College

9500 College Station
Brunswick, ME 04011
207-725-3000

Free Admission, Donations Welcome

This unique museum is another of Bowdoin College's impressive additions to its campus. Here you can discover the findings of Arctic explorers Robert Peary & Donald MacMillan, both of whom were graduates of Bowdoin. Collections include exploration gear, natural history, anthropological photographs and unique artifacts from the Inuit cultures of Labrador & Greenland.

Boothbay Railway Village Museum

586 Wiscasset Rd (Right off Rte 27)
Boothbay, ME 04537
207-633-4727

Admission - ask us at the front desk about tickets; we have some available.

The Railway Village is a beloved local attraction (great for the kids) that displays antique autos and railway memorabilia, as well as an actual passenger steam train that runs around the 30-acre property.

Children's Discovery Museum

226 Water St - Vickery Building
Augusta, ME 04333
207-622-2209

$4 Adult Admission, Children $5

An excellent educational museum, the CDM in Augusta has several hands-on learning exhibits, where children can learn how things work "in the real world." They can play in the following life-like exhibits: bank, grocery store, theatre, jungle/rainforest, tree-house, engineering room and library.

Old Fort Western16 Cony St*Augusta, ME 04333*207-626-2385*$6 Adult Admission, children (6-16) $4

A National Historic Landmark, Fort Western was built in 1754 and is America's oldest surviving wooden fort. It was initially used as a storehouse that supported nearby Fort Halifax. Today the Fort exhibits the old general store, the main house, and of course, the fort itself. They are only open from 1-4 PM, so be aware of that when planning your visit.

THEATRESRegal Cinemas*19 Gurnet Rd*Brunswick, ME 04011*207-798-3996*Admission

A 10-screen theatre playing the newest releases.

Flagship Cinemas9 Moody Drive*Thomaston, ME 04861*207-594-2100*Admission

A 12-screen theatre playing the newest releases.

Waldo Theatre916 Main St*Waldoboro, ME 04572*207-832-6060*Admission

With seating for 400, the Waldo opened in 1937 and was renowned for its wonderful acoustics. The Theatre has gone through a number of different owners and managers throughout the years, but today, newly renovated and updated, it is still favored by locals and visitors alike as one of the community's treasures, offering the mid-coast an expanded range of entertainment from adult and youth theatre to comedians and concerts of modern and classical music.

Lincoln County Community Theatre2 Theatre St*Damariscotta, ME 04543*207-563-3424*Admission

Built in 1875, Lincoln Theatre was initially used as a community social meeting hall where balls, meetings and conventions were held. It was later used during the early 1900's as a roller-skating rink and finally, as a theatre. Today, concerts, live plays and movies are all offered at the renovated, volunteer-run theatre.

Boothbay Opera House
86 Townsend Ave
Boothbay Harbor, ME 04538
207-633-6855

Admission

The Boothbay Opera House is a year-round, multi-purpose performance facility playing host to a wide range of cultural and civic organizations' events. The main performance space seats up to 450 people in a variety of configurations. With excellent acoustics, mezzanine seating and historical charm, the main hall provides a wonderful place to see a performance. Quite literally, there isn't a bad seat in the house. Call FMI.

Carousel Music Theatre
196 Townsend Avenue
Boothbay Harbor, ME 04538
207-633-5297

Admission

The Carousel is Mid-Coast Maine's only professional dinner theatre. They work with some of the best up & coming professional talent from across the U.S. Enjoy four different Broadway-style shows throughout the summer season. While serving your dinner of choice, performers do an intimate cabaret, featuring standards of Broadway, jazz and pop.

Boothbay Playhouse
275 Wiscasset Rd
Boothbay, ME 04537
207-633-3379

Admission

The Playhouse offers live music theatre, featuring popular Broadway musicals. Call FMI.

Eveningstar Cinema
149 Maine St
Brunswick, ME 04011
207-729-5486

Admission

Eveningstar is a quaint and cozy cinema in downtown Brunswick featuring independent films, plays, and concert series.

Frontier Cinema
14 Maine St
Brunswick, ME 04011
207-725-5222

Admission

Located in the historic Fort Andross building, Frontier Cinema offers independent films, concert series and plays. Frontier also has a café and an art gallery.

Strand Theatre
345 Main St
Rockland, ME 04841
207-594-0070

Admission

Recently renovated, the Strand is on the National Historic Registry and today offers the best of independent and world cinema, documentary, classic and retrospective film. In addition, the Strand hosts live musical & comedy performances.

WINERIES

Cellar Door Vineyard
367 Youngtown Rd
Lincolnton, ME 04849
207-763-4478

Just outside of Camden Hills, Cellar Door Vineyard is reminiscent of vineyards found in Tuscany. The owners have traveled extensively throughout Europe and draw inspiration from the vibrant vineyards found there. The Vineyard has over 15 selections of wine on offer, ranging from Chardonnays and Rieslings to Chiantis and Merlots.

Blacksmith's Winery (45 mile drive)
967 Quaker Ridge Rd
South Casco, ME 04077
207-655-3292

Originally a blacksmith's shop during the 1800's, the property is now a winery producing over 20 types of wine, including specialty blueberry and elderberry wines. Stop by for a tour or tasting!

Winterport Winery (60 mile drive)
279 South Main St
Winterport, ME 04496
207-223-4500

Winterport Winery is a family-run vineyard known for its production of varied fruit wines. They have been in the business for over 30 years and offer tours and tastings and also have an art gallery on the property.